Sweet toasty oak aromas, balanced nicely by ripe, juicy fruit. Shows layers of complexity, with well-integrated oak and a lovely long finish.

The full-bodied palate is simultaneously plush and fresh, offering up loads of rich black fruit and dashes of crushed minerals and savory secondaries. Serve in large Bordeaux stems around 60-65 degrees, enjoy over several hours, and preserve a few bottles for the long haul—this will meet 2025 and beyond in full stride. Cheers!

This wine offers a bright nose of sweet oak, which leads to succulent waves of cherry, plum and currant on the palate. Flourishes of cedar and dried herb meld with a wealth of soft, silky tannins. —V.B.
